Surface Interval Principal speaks at Statewide Leadership Conference

LAKE BUENA VISTA, FL – Surface Interval Training’s Kevin B. Green was featured as a speaker at this year’s International Association of Administrative Professionals Florida Division Leadership Conference. This occasion marks the fourth time Mr. Green has spoken to IAAP members throughout the state of Florida. His presentation at this year’s event was entitled “Taking the Heat: Building Strength through Fire.”

Kevin is regionally recognized as an expert in effective communication skills and regularly delivers training sessions on presentation skills, workplace communications, and conflict resolution. In his presentation, Mr. Green drew parallels between the natural characteristics of heat and pressure to give attendees real live training in dealing with adversity in the workplace.

Surface Interval Training employs expert training staff whose experience extends not only to SCUBA but to the corporate training and organizational development environment. This most recent presentation is another example of the quality that is to be expected from Surface Interval.
